

Sang Arun

About Company:

Anong Kopanichkul started the Sang Arun Ceramics journey in 1964 to manufacture High Quality, Unrivaed Handmade Ceramic Products with the ability to craft Organic Shapes and Aesthetic designs to suit everyone's choice.

Sang Arun is steeped in its Rich Heritage of over 20 years of trading based in Lampang, Thailand. We're driven by a Highly Professional and Skilled workforce, a perfect balance between Ceramists, Designers, and our native Craftswomen.

We're manufacturing products from Quirky, Sleek Designs, and Colors from monochrome to vibrant contrasting colors. Our success is reflected in Sang Arun Ceramics' Versatile product ranges and Exceptional Quality.

About Collection:

Sang Arun Ceramics curates a wide range of Traditional and Modern Atelier, Attic tableware, decorative and lab items. Every piece is Unparalleled and Distinctive in its own way.

An Emerging designer Carla Peters from the Netherlands, designs our pottery. So, from clay forming to molding, baking, and designing, every masterpiece is supervised by our highly skilled Ceramists, Sculptures, and Designers.

That's why our Handmade pieces are Ethnically Diverse, Modern design, Multi-functional and Sustainable. Our pottery is glazed with food-grade material, microwave, and dishwasher safe.

Sang Arun is an Ideal place for you - for a Ceramic Lover.

About Customer:

Sang Arun Ceramics is Combining the Heritage by exporting its products to other regions of the world. We have collaborated with other renowned companies like Galleries Lafayette, Fair Trade, and GEPA.

Sang Arun is not just about offering Good Material, Processes, Designs, Good wages, or meet Standards. It's all about Delivering Extraordinary Quality and Experience to every customer. We're Quality Obsessed, and we're not satisfied until you're not. You can always reach Sang Arun for Custom Products and Designs.

Our workers' hands get dirty in clay, but their hearts are full of Imagination, Curiosity, Ambition, and Hard work. Let's get our hands dirty to curate your imaginations.
